1) Why is the McCloud data collection exercise necessary?

The Government has confirmed that changes will be made to all the main public service pension schemes, including the LGPS, to remove the unlawful age discrimination identified in the McCloud ruling.

In the LGPS, the Government is proposing to provide eligible younger members with a protection equal to the protection provided to older members when the Scheme was changed in 2014 (2015 Scotland and Northern Ireland). To do this, your administering authority needs to collect extra data (hours worked and service breaks) for all members. This data is needed from the date the LGPS changed in April 2014 up to 31 March 2022 (or earlier if the member left active membership of the scheme or reached their 2008 Scheme NPA before that date).

2) Do I have to provide the data?

The data is needed to comply with legislative changes that will be made to the LGPS to remove unlawful age discrimination. We understand that some employers have continued to supply this information since the Scheme changed in 2014. Your administering authority will let you know what data they need. You are legally required to provide administering authorities with the information they need to calculate members' benefits.

3) How should I submit the data?

You should use the McCloud data collection template to collate the data relating to your employees. Please make sure you read the notes before completing it. Once you have collated your data you should use the Council's secure e-mail system Egress and send to pensionsdata@leics.gov.uk.

4) Do I have to submit the data for employees who have left?

Yes, the notes that accompany the McCloud data collection template specify that the data should be submitted for members of the LGPS from April 2014 onwards, regardless of whether they are still in employment.

5) Is there a deadline for submitting the data?

The deadline for submitting the data is 31st March 2021.

6) I am unsure how to complete the McCloud data collection template?

You should read the notes that accompany the McCloud data collection template to help resolve your questions. If after reading the notes you are still unsure, please contact Stuart Wells (stuart.wells@leics.gov.uk) or Gary Featherstone (gary.featherstone@leics.gov.uk) for help.

7) Can I recharge the cost of providing the data?

No, you are legally required to provide administering authorities with the data needed to calculate pension benefits.

8) What happens if I cannot supply the data?

You are legally required to provide administering authorities with the data needed to calculate pension benefits. If you are experiencing difficulties with this, please contact Stuart Wells (stuart.wells@leics.gov.uk) or Gary Featherstone (gary.featherstone@leics.gov.uk) as soon as possible. You should be aware that failure to provide the data may increase your liabilities in the Scheme and therefore could lead to an increase in your employer contribution rate at the next valuation.
